ENTRIES AND FEES

Early Bird Online Registration Closing Date:

11:59pm EST, Friday 8th May, 2020

Additional fees will apply after this date – to be advised closer to the date of competition.

- Competitor Entry fee is inclusive of door entry and entitles competitors to compete in all eligible events on the day.
- Age category entry fee is inclusive of novelty event Adult/Junior only.
- Jack & Jill requires a separate $2 entry fee on the day of competition from all individual competitors.
- Additional entries for competitors in Novelty events (Adult/Junior) ONLY will be accepted on the day of competition.
- Competitors who enter the novelty events ONLY on the day of competition, and are not enrolled in any other event, will be required to pay a separate competitor entry fee for these events on the day.
- Novice competitors must have been dancing less than 12 months and are eligible to compete in novice events & their age category in any other eligible event.
- Competitor and Spectator Fees are non-refundable.
- All competing couples will be required to pay a $5 refundable deposit for their competitor number. This includes any additional competitor numbers required for competitors who do not already have a number and/or who enter additional novelty events on the day, ie Adult/Junior or Jack & Jill. $5 will be refunded on the return of the number at the end of competition.
- All events will run regardless of the number of competitors. Organisers have the right to combine and cancel events as they see fit subject to entries. If time is limited some events may be cut down to 1 song.

JUDGES AND JUDGING CRITERIA

Judges

Judges for this competition will be from both Australia & New Zealand.

Results will be made available to competitors via email, on request, at a later date.

Judging Criteria

The organisers of this competition recognise that there are many styles of ROCK 'N' ROLL, SWING, LINDY HOP and ROCKABILLY danced throughout the world, and because of this ALL styles will be judged on merit of performance by the judges to the best of their ability.

- Entrants will be judged equally on Timing, Harmony and Variety
- The judge's decision will be final.
- Judges are not to be approached immediately prior to or during an event.
- Judges are not to be asked any questions concerning the events throughout the entirety of the competition.
- All queries should be directed to the Floor Manager.

Definitions

Timing

Couples to be dancing in time and on beat.

Harmony

Couples dancing together and complimenting each other, harmoniously flowing with the music. Couples should also be seen to be enjoying themselves and having fun

Variety

A dance with a variety of moves showing interest, excitement and not excluding presentation and showmanship

RULES AND REGULATIONS

- Competitors must be checked in and receive their competitor number prior to the competition commencement.
- Couples can be male/female, female/female or male/male. However, all couples MUST remain in their Lead/Follow roles throughout the event.
 - Same sex couples can dress as per their gender and enter any category as such.
 - The LEAD must wear the competitor number and remain in the lead role.
- A couple is not permitted to dance more than two (2) arm lengths apart at any time. If a dancer encroaches on another competitors' dance space and causes interference (blocking) a disqualification may occur at the discretion of the judges. Dance etiquette will be upheld.
- Competitors will be called up to the floor from their seat for all events.
- If the competitor doesn't appear when called, they will be scratched from the event in keeping consistent with the running of the program and having respect for your fellow competitors.
- Competitors wishing to withdraw themselves from an event must notify the Floor Manager at least two (2) events prior to the event in which they are scheduled to compete.
- Once withdrawn from an event a couple may NOT re-enter that event.
- Competitors must remain on the floor at the end of each section until the M.C. announces, "Dancers you may now leave the floor".
- Unless otherwise stated, there will be two (2) songs played for each event.
- All songs will be played in the style appropriate for the era of the category.
- The Professional status rule does not apply to this competition. Both Amateurs and Professionals can dance in this competition.
- Competitors are limited to age categories (see below).
- In submitting an entry for this event, competitors give permission for any photographic or video material taken to be used for promotion or sale by "Cooly Rocks On", "Kooly Kat Dance Championships" and approved third parties.
- Strictly NO products, eg powder, pepper, etc are to be applied to the floor or shoes at any time.

CODE OF CONDUCT

Code of conduct towards competitors and spectators is expected to be in a "family orientated" manner.

Any person(s) seen to be causing trouble or exhibiting inappropriate behaviour prior to or during the event will be asked to leave the venue.

It is part of a condition of entry that competitors and spectators give permission for any photographic or video material taken at the event to be used for promotion or sale by the Cooly Rocks On Festival and/or the Kooly Kat Dance Championships.

AGE LIMITS

- All competitors' ages must fall within the guidelines. Full date of birth must be supplied on registration form.
- Competitors must be of age for the events they have chosen on the day of competition.
- A 3-year waiver will apply to age sections Adult, Masters, Platinum and Golden, ie. – an Adult may dance up to Masters section as long as his/her partner is of age for that Masters section. The same Adult competitor may also dance with another partner in his/her age section.
This waiver will not apply to Junior/Adult sections. Junior competitors are only permitted to dance in the age category they are eligible for.
- Competitors who do not meet the 3-year waiver and have nominated to an incorrect age category will automatically be re-allocated to the correct age category of the younger competitor and will be informed of this change.
- Where age categories are already combined on the registration form, ie Adult/Masters or Platinum/Golden, competitors from each of the age categories will dance together and be judged together for that event, eg Adult/Masters will dance and be judged together on the floor in the same event.
- Where age categories are listed separately on the registration form, however number of competitors requires organisers to combine age categories into one event on the day of competition, competitors may be required to dance together on the floor but will be judged as per separate age categories.

DRESS CODE

- 40s, 50s and 60s style of clothing must be worn in all dance sections, as appropriate for the competitor's style of dance
- Competitors must wear traditional Rock and Roll, Rockabilly or Lindy Hop clothing suitable to the dress of the era and in accordance with the event they are competing in.
- The dress code will be monitored via a dress parade that will be held for all competitors prior to competition commencement.
- If the dress code is not adhered to competitors will not be permitted to enter the floor for that event. Partners do not have to wear matching outfits but must complement one another.
- Competitors must wear their competition clothing when being presented with awards for placing.

Follows

- The follows' dress or skirt in all Rock 'n' Roll and Rockabilly events must cover the kneecap completely, i.e. the crease at the back of the kneecap will be seen covered by the outer dress/skirt length. This can be checked by kneeling on a chair and skirt must touch chair.
- A Rockabilly follow must wear pencil skirt, full rock 'n' roll skirt or dress with petticoat or pedal pushers below the knee.
- Swing and Lindy Hop follows are permitted to wear the clothing of the era, including high-waisted shorts and pants, playsuits and skirt/dress lengths both above and below the knee, as long as it is of appropriate styling for the era.
- No stiletto heels are permitted in the venue.
